

TRIGGERS AND BOWS SHOOTING RANGE

CLUB BYLAWS

Rules contained in Roberts "Rules of Order" shall govern the club in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the rules of order of the club.

- All club members and junior members shall pay their membership dues by May 31st each year. (Special exceptions may be made for temporarily absent members.) Payment not received within 90 days of membership deadline will result in their Authorization to Transport to be null and void.
- All junior members shall successfully complete the Canadian Firearms Safety Course and Test and hold a valid Minors Firearms License.
- All members requesting an "Authorization to Transport" for the transportation of restricted firearms and prohibited handguns shall successfully complete an approved course in the safety use and handling of such firearms. A club member who has been certified as a firearm safety instructor for the delivery of such courses shall deliver this course.
- All members using restricted firearms and prohibited handguns must maintain competency by shooting at the range on at least two occasions to be considered active members. (Special exceptions may be made for temporarily absent members)
- The executive and board of directors in co-operation with the range safety officer and firearms training officer shall develop a set of range safety rules for each shooting discipline and shall post these rules at each location.
- The club shall hold a minimum of $2 million of commercial general liability insurance with coverage on an occurrence basis.
